JOE, M ATT, TRENT,

I am making a last request of you --- speaking as a mother for her son—

Asking for your consideration when you give your closing statement.

It has become very obvious from the feedback from those that have viewed the video that the most chilling, most gut –retching part –to the point that some could not continue to view the video--- is the end of the video/ behind the patrol car:

Bob's continued screams in pain and pleading:

is what I can’t get out of my head and my heart—it is what collapses me. THIS IS HIS VOICE –THIS IS HIS STORY.

I am Begging YOU, as his mother, to consider running that in its entirety

Hand delivered/Wed. May 13, 2015/ 9:am
